Опыт работы

Having graduated from Armenian State Pedagogical University and passing five years on finishing a Ph.D. in Language teaching methodology, my passion in life remained the same - Travel. I started to combine university teaching with my travel obsession. Travel took me away to the most beautiful and hidden corners of Armenia this way, immersing me more and more into the endless history and mysteries of the Armenian Highlands. I passed professional courses on guiding and started to inspire many travelers with my stories and legends filling their trips with deep cultural experiences. Due to my immense love for nature, a strong sense of humor, and obsession with different cultures, I could take people deep into the roots of Armenian culture this way revealing all the colors of the country.
