О себе

Hello,

As an effective professional Translator with 10+ years of experience I have strong communication skills. I help my team to adopt the vision and keep them to be focused on working towards achieving it.

Using of my professional skills of English/Russian and vice versa translation helped the companies i worked for to:

Achieve the company´s goals and agreements with the help of professional negotiation;

Develop and present the company´s interests in the international market;

My professionalism also contributed to the monthly increase in the profit of each of the companies.

In the addition to the information mentioned above, I would like to point out my working experience as Professional English/Russian and vice versa translator and interpreter with the on The International Summit of Heads of Railway Departments of European States.

Main duties:

English/Russian and translation

Participation as English/Russian translator in both: At negotiations and lunch.

As organized and results driven project’s coordinator I am motivated by organizing projects to maximum efficiency. I get projects completed on time and under budget.

As a person, I enjoy working in teams and to work with multiple tasks in parallel. I also see myself as a leader, as I enjoy making people work together by deciding upon shared goals and priorities. As a motivated person, I aim to always inspire and support my team, in order for them to face challenges with confidence and achieve better result of my work. From reading your company´s website, I feel your core mission and culture suit what I offer as a professional.

I would welcome the chance to have a meeting with you to discuss further, how I can contribute my skills to the success of your organization.

Thank you for your consideration, and I hope that you will find that I am the ideal candidate for this position.

Sincerely,

Marina Karaseva
